DETAILED ACTION

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

1. The text of those sections of Title 35, U.S. Code not included in this action can be found in a prior Office action.
2. Claims 25-28, 30, 32, 34 and 36 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being anticipated by Smith (US Patent No. 3,252,493).

Claim 25:

Smith teaches, in both figures 6 and 9, a dual bushing installation comprising an outer metal bushing (23, figure 6) with outer flange and an inner bushing (11) with the a flange. The inner bushing is rotationally and translationally fixable relative to the outer bushing. Claim 25 merely recites that the bushings must be capable of being fixed in the manner stated and not that they must be fixed in such a manner. Therefore, the examiner asserts that the bushings of Smith are inherently capable of being fixed in such a manner.

Claim 26:

Note that that the circumferences are diameters.

Claim 27:

Note structural work member 14.

Claim 28:

Since the bushings are made of metal, the amount of radial displacement would inherently depend on the modulus of elasticity and ultimate strength.

Claim 30:

See figure 3.

Claim 32 and 43:

See the rejection of claim 25 above.

Claims 34 and 36:

See the rejections above.

Allowable Subject Matter

3. Claims 31 and 37 allowed.

Response to Arguments

4. Applicant's arguments with respect to claims 25-28, 30, 32, 34 and 36 have been considered but are moot in view of the new ground(s) of rejection.

5. The declaration under 37 CFR 1.132 filed 4/17/2007 is insufficient to overcome the rejection of claims 25-28, 30, 32 and 34 based upon extrinsic evidence as set forth in the last Office action because: The evidence submitted is immaterial to that which applicant has claimed. The claims merely recite that the bushings must be capable of being fixed in the manner described and not that they are/must be fixed in such a manner. It refer(s) only to the system described in the above referenced application and not to the individual claims of the application. Thus, there is no showing that the objective evidence of nonobviousness is commensurate in scope with the claims. See MPEP § 716.

Conclusion

6. Applicant's amendment necessitated the new ground(s) of rejection presented in this Office action. Accordingly, THIS ACTION IS MADE FINAL. See MPEP
